

RECONCILIATION

IN RWANDA

How do you live side-by-side with people who killed your loved ones?

Genocide and its Aftermath in Rwanda

Monday, February 28, 2011

4:30-6:30 P.M.

Neilson Library Browsing Room
Smith College

Alice Gatebuke will speak on socio-political realities in Rwanda since the genocide.

Events are free and open to the public

Discussion of the Documentary Coexist, a Film on Post-Genocide Rwanda

Tuesday, March 1, 2011

7-9 P.M.

Franklin Patterson Hall, Main lecture hall
Hampshire College

Come view Coexist, a 40-minute documentary which examines Rwanda's precarious and sensitive experiment in building reconciliation in varied settings across the country.

Alice Gatebuke, an activist for women's rights in Rwanda, will speak on her reaction to Coexist as a survivor of the 1994 genocide. Coexist director Adam Mazo will join her for a post-viewing discussion.

Sponsored by: Hampshire School of Critical Social Inquiry, Law Program, School for Interdisciplinary Arts, Office of Diversity and Multi-Cultural Education; Amherst Department of History; Five College African Studies Council; Five College Lecture Fund; Mount Holyoke Program in African-American and African Studies; Mount Holyoke Department of Political Science; Smith College Lecture Committee; Smith Program in Global South Development Studies; Smith African Studies Program; Smith Global Studies Center; Smith Department of Government; and, UMass Amherst Departments of History and Political Science